

Heaven

*As Thou wast pleased to push up the mountains into the sky
So wast Thou pleased to exalt us sons and daughters of clay
Into Your Heaven to meet with Thee*

*As Thou wast pleased to bring the Sky down to the ground at our feet
So Thou hast humbled and lowered Thee to come down to earth's valley
From Highest Heaven to dwell and meet with us.*

*So all is Heaven on earth to the eye that seeth Thee
- The God Who raiseth up
More so still is Heaven The God Who cometh down
And standeth with human feet next ours in the dust*

*On mountaintop or in valley
Heaven is the place of Thy feet*
